Hi Stephanie-

Could you upload the attached Dear Tribal Leader Letters into DTS and route them for approval? We are still working on securing the venues, but want to get them started in the process.

It may make sense to load them both into one DTS entry because they are announcing listening sessions that, though on different topics, will be on the same dates and at the same venues -- one will be in the morning and one in the afternoon.

Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Thank you!

Liz

Dear Tribal Leader:

On April 26, 2017, President Trump issued an executive order directing Interior to review national monument designations established or expanded since January 1, 1996, that meet certain criteria<sup>1</sup> to determine whether each designation or expansion conforms to the Executive Order's policy. See E.O. 13792, 82 Fed. Reg. 20429.

On May 5, 2017, Secretary Zinke released a list of National Monuments being initially reviewed. The list is available as an enclosure to this letter and is also available at the following website: <https://www.doi.gov/pressreleases/interior-department-releases-list-monuments-under-review-announces-first-ever-formal>.

I invite you to attend one of the listening sessions listed in the enclosure to provide your input before the Secretary provides an interim report to the President on the June 15, 2017, deadline established in the Executive Order. We have attempted to identify centralized locations for these sessions to facilitate your participation, but if you are unable to attend in person, I encourage you to attend the teleconference session.

If you would like to submit written input, please submit your comments to <http://www.regulations.gov> by entering "DOI-2017-0002" in the Search bar and clicking "Search," or by mail to Monument Review, MS-1530, U.S. Department of the Interior, 1849 C Street NW, Washington, DC 20240.

Very Truly,

Michael S. Black
Acting Assistant Secretary – Indian Affairs

<sup>1</sup> The designation covers more than 100,000 acres, where the designation after expansion covers more than 100,000 acres, or where the Secretary determines that the designation or expansion was made without adequate public outreach and coordination with relevant stakeholders. See E.O. 13792, Section 2(a).

Dear Tribal Leader:

On March 13, 2017, President Trump issued an executive order to reorganize the Executive Branch of the U.S. Government. See E.O. 13871, 82 Fed. Reg. 13959. The order aims to improve the efficiency, effectiveness, and accountability of Federal agencies.

As Secretary Zinke has publicly noted, the Department of the Interior has not undergone a comprehensive reorganization in approximately 100 years. To inform Interior's implementation of this Executive Order, we would like your input on how the Department, and the Federal Government as a whole, if appropriate, could be reorganized to help streamline services to tribes and better fulfill the Federal Government's trust and treaty obligations.

I invite you to attend one of the listening sessions listed on the enclosure to provide your input. We have attempted to identify centralized locations for these sessions to facilitate your participation, but if you are unable to attend in person, I encourage you to attend the teleconference session.

If after attending the sessions, you would like to provide written comments, please direct them to consultation@bia.gov by July 15, 2017.

Very Truly,

Michael S. Black
Acting Assistant Secretary – Indian Affairs
